

No green light given for St. Albert's second paper

The Town of St. Albert is still stalling on its decision whether or not to take the offer of Sun Colorpress for an alternate paper here. It had anticipated that the matter would have been finally aired and mulled at the regular meeting of council last Monday night.

Council had hoped that the publisher of the St. Albert Gazette Ernie Jamison would have shown up at this meeting to voice any objections to council's consideration of Sun Colorpress's offer. That company had offered to start weekly publication of the St. Albert Star October 15 and it would be delivered to every resident in St. Albert.

Mr. Jamison did not attend council meeting but sent a letter to each member.

He pointed out in his letter that council as a body or as individuals could have arranged to meet with him at the Gazette office to ask questions pertinent to their deliberations on a second newspaper. (Not one councillor has approached Mr. Jamison for such information).

While council has still not reached any firm decision on Sun Colorpress's offer - that company is all lined up with office premises and an editor and reporter for St. Albert - the public is not showing any fear as to what it thinks of the affair between council and the St. Albert Gazette.

ST. ALBERT POLICE STATE

During time for public delegations a local St. Albert businessman who requested that his name be withheld took council to task for turning St. Albert into a police state.

"You have publicly announced to the whole province that St. Albert is a police state - don't criticize or disagree with the council here or else they will get even."

The businessman felt concern for small businesses in general in the town when a council could take its business from a local well

Council worried over residents payments

The Town of St. Albert has recently been receiving a large number of calls about the large increases in taxes for the town for the 1975 taxation year.

The town points out that these increases are not the result of property tax increases but due to the mortgage companies trying to recover tax account deficits and tax increases.

At the regular meeting of town council last Monday night, Mayor Dick Plain expressed the fear that the banks and trust funds could make martyrs out of the community. Council wanted to beat the problem within the framework of its overall budget by January 1st next year.

Council passed a motion to meet with representatives of the mortgage companies to see how levies might be averaged over a longer period.

Mayor Dick Plain wants the comments of the companies "on how the private sector and us can alleviate these extraordinary increases on residents' monthly payments."

In one case cited the tax payment had increased by $39.00 a month while the increase in 1975 over 1974 property taxes had gone up from $41.25 a month to $51.18.

It should be pointed out that over 1974 municipal taxes for the average home in St. Albert went up approximately $90.00.

Town poised to move for seniors accomodation

Moves are afoot in St. Albert to right the situation which makes it the largest urban centre in Alberta without appropriate senior citizen accomodation.

Applications for self-contained suite style accomodation the town sees for its future senior citizens have been sent to the Alberta

Housing Corporation.

Site selection is near completion and recommendations are to be completed to council in two weeks time.

A meeting was held September 18 in the Paul Kane School where volunteer organizations and representatives of the Town of St. Albert could give their views on how to get the whole senior citizens accomodation project going.

St. Albert's Building Inspector Andy Kampen was vocal at the meeting and said that it was time for council to get off their butts and say "let's do the darn thing."

One of these days we would

Nothing final on Akinsdale Stage Seven

The Town of St. Albert will not go ahead with the signing of the development agreement for Akinsdale Stage Seven till the whole matter has received further study by town staff.

The developer Qualico is anxious to have the development agreement signed and the land rezoned in a development which would boost St. Albert's tax revenue four times for a site of comparable size.

A spokesman for the developer R. P. Savage told council Monday night that the development of the Akinsdale centre core would net the town $225,000 over a comparable figure of $77,000 and some of that would be swallowed up in utility costs.

He said that the development, which would bring in nearly 300 housing units of a higher class for those who couldn't afford houses in the $50-60,000 price bracket, could get started by the end of this year with occupancy a year after that.

He pointed out that the development would be of a rental nature and this would have an impact on St. Albert which has only 15 per cent in the way of rental units and a virtually zero vacancy rate in would be of the R3A type, with a large parking area provided for both visitors and residents, town housing and a commercial site as well as provisions for recreation.

A 24,000 square foot shopping complex is also slated in the development.

Parking is provided for on a two unit per house basis.

Council gave a mixed reception to the presentation by the developer and Councillor Myrna Fyfe thought that it "lacked imagination." She was also concerned that streets in the core would not be wide enough and there would be danger to children because of this. She was assured that this would be them.

Basically the development taken into account by the developer and that space for recreational vehicles in particular would be finalized.

Also in answer to a question from Coun. Fyfe, Mr. Savage said that there would be space allotted for groceries, offices and other small businesses in the core area.

Concerning the separate parking area Councillor Rod Thordson doubted if anyone would want to park there and then have to walk (a fair distance) to his friends. He also felt that streets in the core were too narrow.

Mayor Dick Plain did not see any possibility of third reading being given for the core till all the details had been finalized.

Rec Complex Meeting

Tues. y Sept.30

St. Albert Parks and Recreation Board are holding a public meeting next Tuesday night, as advertised in this issue, to consider further refinements to the proposed Multi-Purpose Recreational/Cultural complex. The Board had planned a Charette format to hear the views of interested citizens and groups. They point out that any major changes which would cause an increase in the estimated $4.5 million budget cannot be considered. The meeting will be held in the Community Hall at 7:30 p.m.

established company to save about $500 a year.

He asked council to evaluate the possible saving against the lost revenue to the town in business taxes "not only from the diminished Gazette but from the other businesses which you will drive away."

"What businessman is going to consider setting up here even if he can find space?"

He felt that the move to take business away from the Gazette was an "ill thought out immature move of vengeance because the owner of that business dared to question your actions."

He pointed out that "bigger people would simply ignore the slight, rise above it and carry on."

He added that if town council felt uncomfortable with its previous decision now was the time to be magnanimous before it was too late and St. Albert became the butt of ridicule throughout the province.

COUNCIL WANTED JAMISON AT MONDAY MEETING

In a letter to Mr. Jamison September 17, Mayor Dick Plain suggested that the Gazette publisher state his objections to council's consideration of the Sun Colorpress proposal in front of local government.

The letter goes on: "As matters presently stand we have a straightforward business proposition to consider which seemingly indicates that the taxpayers in this community can receive greater benefit for each public dollar spent for advertising purposes than exists under the present arrangements."

The mayor said that council would be remiss if it did not consider a proposition put forward by a business competitor which "seemingly offered comparable services, more comprehensive coverage in St. Albert and lower rates than those provided by the St. Albert Gazette."

In the letter the mayor stated that "quasi-monopolies are not a tolerable feature in any healthy vigorous and competitive market place."

He said that every government had the responsibility to ensure that competition exists in various economic markets... and that if cost savings can be obtained by a public corporation by encouraging competition in the local newspaper market in St. Albert, that businessmen should welcome this kind of development."

At council there were motions to receive correspondence on the subject but there was no decision on taking the St. Albert Star. That matter is still under study by town staff.

Councillor Gary Wetsch maintained that he would not support any agreement with the new publication till he saw what that paper had to offer. He wanted a three month trial first.

Councillor Rod Thronson said that he had been receiving many phone calls and letters on the St. Albert Gazette-Town Council conflict and wondered when a decision on a new paper would come from council.

Councillor Frank Lukay made a motion to give the local businessman all the information on the fracas but this motion was lost.

Said Councillor Thronson: "Why should he receive anything more than (others) and the 30 people who phoned me?"

Late Tuesday morning the St. Albert businessman who wished to stand anonymous and who had delivered his statement to town council at the regular meeting Monday night pointed out that he had been taken to task by Madam Chairwoman Margaret Smith for what he had said on the St. Albert Gazette-Council issue. This had occurred at coffee break face to face.

He said that he had been told that his behaviour was beneath the dignity of the place (council chambers).

all be senior citizens, he added.

Mayor Dick Plain who chaired the meeting said he wanted to move ahead in harmony on the project and Councillor Rod Thronson, in the audience of about 20 people, agreed with this.

What the town hopes to do is to get the whole project nailed down and then get senior citizens and individuals in the town to send letters to Premier Peter Lougheed highlighting the need for senior citizen facilities in St. Albert.

MLA Ernie Jamison was asked about a petition gathered by the Seniors with the support of the St. Albert Lions Club. He said that he had presented the petition, carrying about 150 names, to the Government Committee on Senior Citizen Accommodation over a year and a half ago. He noted that this petition requested a Lodge, and that he is personally of the opinion that self contained units alone will not fill the needs of the seniors. "I believe a lodge in combination with single units is what will be needed, on a site of about five acres," Mr. Jamison added.

Members of the management board for the facility would probably be appointed by ministerial order and the municipality and volunteer organizations would play a large part in co-ordinating the whole project.

Mayor Plain cautioned however that the one thing which could stop progress would be lack of provincial government funding.

It's hoped that with a fair wind, St. Albert will have its senior citizens accommodation by 1976.

The town will have to determine which organizations are to serve as the sponsoring agency and will also have to obtain suggestions on the size of the facility.

Some residents at the meeting gave examples of similar projects in other Alberta communities - four storey, 42 suite developments with full recreational facilities and routine amenities for cooking and so on.

There was also the suggestion from Mr. Thronson that single units might be considered for senior citizens who wanted to "go it alone."

It seems that the capital costs of the project would come from provincial coffers. Each unit would cost about $15,000. Rents ranging from $32 per month for those with an income of $192 or less, to 25 percent of a monthly income of $451 and up would help pay off the capital debt.

Women's Institute representative Lorraine Moore pointed out that a well formulated plan would have to go to the government if the right kind of action was to result.

OTTAWA and Small Business

Spending checks 'gone'

By KENNETH McDONALD

Ten years ago 495 separate votes were needed in the House of Commons to authorize Ottawa's spending.

But in 1969 rule changes reduced this number to 136, giving elected members less opportunity to vote on and criticize the various government spending proposals.

Committee chairmen, except in a minority government situation, are of the ruling party and are instructed to push estimates through as quickly as possible.

The Public Accounts Committee cannot examine the Auditor General's report on the previous year's spending until it is referred by the House of Commons. For its own political purposes the government delays referral of the report, sometimes for as long as four years. (In Australia, by contrast, the Auditor General's report must be referred for examination within weeks of the end of the fiscal year.)

As a result, Ottawa's spending has jumped from $7 billion in 1965 to $28.2 billion this year and that figure is expected to reach $32 billion by the time supplementaries, special loans and advances have been added.

How can this happen? How many small businessmen can afford to spend five times as much this year as they did in 1965?

Ottawa gets more to spend every year without raising taxes because rising incomes put people into ever higher income tax brackets and the revenue increases automatically. Even with indexing the income tax, the revenue still increases because the index is geared to past inflation and so lags behind the actual rate. Revenue in 1974, the first full year of indexing, was 17 per cent higher than in the previous year.

While this is happening Ottawa hires more and more "information officers" whose jobs are to present what Ottawa does in a favorable light. In 1973 the number of positions was increased from 747 to 1,125, many of them with salaries as high as $36,000.

The danger is obvious. On the one hand Ottawa removes the traditional parliamentary checks on spending. On the other it sets up a public relations screen to conceal the facts from the public.

In the end all politicians, even at the top, depend on votes. This is why the Canadian Federation of Independent Business urges its members and all Canadians to support their local MP. Individual MPs need visible support -- in the form of letters, telegrams, case histories -- to make themselves heard. Otherwise they are not listened to.

If Parliament loses its supremacy, if our MPs are prevented from exercising an effective check on spending and taxation, our free democratic society will be replaced by an authoritarian bureaucratic state.

Terrible disease to be combatted

For the past two years, Cystic Fibrosis has been a special project in District 59 of the Kinsmen Club. Approximately $85,000 has been raised by the Kinsmen and Kinette clubs in the district and all this money has been poured into research. This year the clubs hope to achieve even bigger and better things.

In keeping with this spirit, the Kinette Club of St. Albert is planning a cystic fibrosis tag day at the Grandin Shoppers Mall, Safeway and outside the liquor store. Tag Day will be Saturday, October 4. Watch for it and please help in this very worthwhile cause.

Cystic Fibrosis is one of the most common serious chronic disorders of Canadian infants and children. In C.F. certain glands do not function properly. The mucus glands secrete an abnormal thick, gluey mucus and the sweat glands produce an unusually salty sweat.

The abnormal mucus causes trouble in the lungs by clogging the bronchial tubes, and in the digestive system by preventing the flow of digestive enzymes from the pancreas into the small intestine. The child is prey to lung infections, the lungs themselves may suffer progressive permanent damage. Because digestion is impeded severe malnutrition may occur.

C.F. cannot be cured. Investigators, however, are trying to pinpoint the exact deficiency or error in hopes of being able to supply what the body needs to correct it. The patient is an essential member of the research team, as C.F. affects only human beings and cannot be studied in animals.

Remember, Tag Day, Saturday, October 4.

Lt. Governor presents Canada cords

The Honourable Ralph G. Steinhauer, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, will present Canada Cord certificates in a Tamarac area ceremony Sunday afternoon.

This event is the first Canada Cord certificate presentation for Tamarac area. Tamarac area, which extends from St. Albert to Slave Lake, has 74 Canada Cord Guides.

Mrs. Ethel Tyler, Deputy Provincial Commissioner, and St. Albert Mayor Richard Plain will also attend.

The Flea Market, which is held every second Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Community Hall on Perron Street, opened a few weeks ago after a summer break.

For a 25 cent admission fee, buyers got a chance to view second hand bargains, and the antiques and new goods of dealers. There was even a bottle table to serve the interests of those who collect antique bottles.

"You can often get a better deal on antique items here because the dealer's overhead is lower," said organizer Arthur Becking-ham.

For interested dealers or people cleaning house, the fee for selling your wares is $2.50 per table. Non-profit organizations get stalls free and Mr. Beckingham is hoping some other organizations will follow the lead of the Rangers and the Women's Institute.

St. Albert residents have preference in regards to the renting of selling space in the hall. Those people interested in getting space should phone Tess Beckingham at 458-2522. Next market is October 5.

There is a refreshment stand on the premises. Apple, peach and pumpkin pie is part of the fare. Last Sunday, all buyers were eligible for a 10 dollar gift voucher draw.

Just as a reminder

Just as a reminder, St. Albert and District residents still have an opportunity to show their appreciation of the work and services of the local RCMP detachment this coming Saturday at the St. Albert Inn.

A formal ball is to be held that evening and because tickets are sold on a first come first served basis, interested parties should get their tickets soon. There will be a limit of 150 couples admitted.

Tickets can be obtained at the St. Albert Inn, Scott Rentals, Sweetheart Jewellery, and the Town Hall by phoning Bob Hudson at 459-7581.

Dress is of the tuxedo and evening gown variety.

Besides the dance, patrons will be treated to a grand march put on by the RCMP and they will be in full dress for the occasion.

There are not many chances to show appreciation to the RCMP for their services. This is one way to spend an enjoyable evening with your police force.

Three year old dies in town accident

A three year old St. Albert boy was killed in a road accident 4:15 p.m., September 22 at a point on Hebert Road near Sunset Boulevard.

At the time of going to press local RCMP were withholding the boy's name till all next of kin had been informed of the fatality.

The accident happened when the boy was struck by a westbound vehicle driven by St. Albert resident Donald LeDrew of 8 Fairhaven Place. It is still under investigation.

There was no information to hand on the boy's injuries. He was taken for treatment to the Sturgeon General Hospital.

Following this he was taken to the Edmonton General Hospital where he died, said RCMP.

Gazette fabric of St. Albert life

We wish to protest Council's consideration to bring another newspaper into St. Albert and give it full Town Hall support. This issue arose out of the conflict between Council and Mr. Jamison and smacks of bucking to us. I can only cause division in our community as you force us to take sides.

We don't want to get into any of the issues of this silly, immature confrontation in this letter, only to express our full support of the Gazette as the only newspaper we need in St. Albert.

We have only lived in St. Albert for two years and found the Gazette invaluable in learning about our community. We feel it is an excellent source of information on all town activities.

The Gazette is part of the fabric of life in St. Albert and the surrounding districts. It may not always be sophisticated but it's our "home town" paper. The people who work there are part of our community. We don't want to need a paper composed in some office in Edmonton.

Please Council put aside grievances and support the Gazette as a St. Albert business.

MLA Column

By W. E. Jamison

From time to time I am asked about the possibility of the Town of St. Albert having its own seat in the next Provincial Legislature. Some members of the former and present town council have expressed their wish for a separate seat.

The Legislative Assembly will be enlarged for the 1978 election by four seats. There will be one member for approximately every 16,000 of voter population, as opposed to total population.

A present, the town's voting population is 16,500 out of a total population of about 22,000. Thus it is clear that the town will not qualify for an urban seat. Sherwood Park, for example, could present a stronger case for a seat.

A typical showing of St. Albert's Constituency boundaries, I believe, would remove Edmonton's Castle Downs district and the Canadian Forces Base Galtland together with the north half of the MLAs. Residents' Discontent Area (and perhaps the most southerly tip of the constituency) being within the MLAs of Westdale.

This would leave the Town of St. Albert plus most of the MLAs of Sturgeon with a voter population of about 16,000.

Since these municipalities have common areas of involvement, including the Hospital district, school districts, water and sewer servicing, transportation, including roads, rapid transit and public bus transport, this would appear a logical constituency boundary.

In addition there would be no place for the MLAs present in the Legislative Assembly. They could not go to either the Sherwood Area Constituency or the Edmonton Constituency. Both of these presently contain the rural voter population for a seat.

This is because since the Town of St. Albert is same voters area, that is, one of the seats in the Provincial Legislature.

More imagination needed in recreation

With budget time approaching I feel that if we as parents don't make the town council and town's recreation department aware of our children's play needs we will see our tax dollars being spent on traditional equipment and we will have another year of complaints re Lions Park.

We're the traditional types. It would take little effort and time to play a park with traditional equipment. Our children would scramble over it but when the novelty wore off and its main functions faded - what then? Kids would probably to structure it and we as adults would throw our hands up in despair saying "see I told you the vandals would ruin it." Of course vandals would make it slippery and dangerous - a real challenge for the normal child.

Recently in Ridgewood Terrace an 8-frame playhouse was constructed. Every evening 30-40 kids stand under it, hanging from it, climbing it and restructing it. As property owners we were treated to the influx of kids into the area but more annoying to me is to know that the town has no facilities for our kids. They still have the need to climb and get the adrenalin surge. Certainly organized sports are great but not every kid has an interest in this area nor does every child have the parent backing that some do.

"Why can't they play where they belong - in the playground?" the cry goes out. Have you looked at our playgrounds. On the map that the town's recreation department sent out in June it looked fantastic. But in real life there are approximately a dozen climbing bars a few slides and see-saws. Lots of grass! Tell me honestly does that really turn you on?

Years ago we played "run sheep run" and "kick the can" and built our thing out of scrap in the old corner lot. In centres like Montreal and Toronto these are now covered with high rises. Not so in St. Albert. We have multiple swines that could offer our children supervised adventure programs. To plant rose bushes in the remaining ravines is a crime. We need natural play areas. Have you ever tried to hide in a fenced treeless grassed area?

Recently CBC's "Take 30" did a series on children's rights. He is entitled to them, but we as parents must see that he is given them. Remember "Play is a child's birthright."

JoAnn Symonds.

"Cheap" town council?

As a three family man in St. Albert, and I am also publisher of a small town weekly newspaper, I read with considerable interest the article in the Tuesday, September 23 edition of the Edmonton Journal. As I know, it is difficult for an article of this nature to remain all the facts but a dispassionate analysis. I am not with many opinions in the article.

One wonders what motivates the Town Council of St. Albert: could possibly be to achieve an article of this nature to be printed. Councilor C. E. Weston is quoted as saying "Mr. Pae's name is cheap. We should make it." If this covers the general opinion of our Town Council, I would suggest that to the Town Council that is "cheap" and the name of St. Albert should be used to advertise the town's paper that for their Town Council it seems that council that takes a waste of this nature that is very inflated opinion of their powers.

If this is a direct conflict between Mr. Jamison, Publisher of the St. Albert Gazette, and members of Town Council, one wonders what right Town Council has in using their office directly to impede a privately owned business in their town.

Good quality, locally published community newspapers are becoming very scarce indeed and anyone who consciously damages their livelihood is committing a very great and irreparable crime against their community.

I personally think that before Town Council commits themselves to any binding agreement with Mr. Pae, they should have the intelligence to take a good look at some of the other (7 weekly "News-papers") that this company publishes.

Edmonton census column is correct. It is a very very cheap price to pay for one of your local businesses.

Support local business

As it happens, in St. Albert, I would like to stress that all businesses in St. Albert are a few minutes of their time to support the town office or the mayor, and across the regular Monday meeting of council is proved.

the mayor or the council letting their personal feeling about the Gazette interfere with their duty.

Just a few weeks ago, the mayor was very concerned with Edmonton because according to the mayor they are planning to incorporate St. Albert. The mayor is right to be concerned.

But the mayor has lost his civic mind over criticism from the Gazette and wants to bring in outside competition. Now by his action, he might force a good honest local business to close its door. If he is against annexation, the mayor should support local business.

If council would go as far as closing one business, what will happen to other businesses?

Not a Communist paper

To the Tappayers, so you believe the change of Mr. Pae's newspaper of Edmonton to replace the St. Albert Gazette will come free to you. First of all there is a $2.50 charge per taxpayer. $1.42 per column inches per ad.

I am sure that any surplus charge will be charged to the taxpayer. It could be like Mr. Pae's paper. Mayor winds the contract then asks $3.00 per column inch.

I believe that the St. Albert Gazette is giving to taxpayers all the news, bad and good. That's what we call a free press.

I buy the St. Albert Gazette because I want to, not because it is forced on me. Yes, Councilor Smith it is not good to be true.

Yes Mr. Mayor and some of the councillors you don't want to join Edmonton but still you want to undermine a business of St. Albert in favour of Edmonton. Not bad for a man that is supposed to work for St. Albert. The grass is always greener on the other side of the fence.

So let's keep the St. Albert Gazette. It's a good paper that prints all the news.

It is not a communist paper that writes only one side of the story. If council have any beef against Ernie Jamison don't make it on the taxpayer. Fight your own battle.

Dear Mr. Jamison:

The contributors that is presently going on between you and the members of the Town Council in my opinion is well summed up in an editorial which appeared in the Edmonton Journal, September 18th.

As a person who deals with the news media in my every day work, I have over the years adopted the policy that we expect good press when deserved and bad press on the occasions that are warranted.

Town council's business is also subjected to the news media scrutiny and they too should expect good and bad coverage. I am certain that the majority of residents of St. Albert will agree with me when I say they receive both good and bad reports as they are deserved by your newspaper.

When they make good decisions they get good write-ups and when they make bad decisions they get bad write-ups. In the other hand, when they make decisions that are unacceptable, that are unacceptable, they immediately become a little bit more skeptical and they don't certain members of our town council telling us they are above criticism?

The Town of St. Albert has for several years encouraged patronization of local businesses. Town council's proposed decision to give an advertising to an outsider instead of supporting the Gazette is in my mind not setting a very good example for the rest of it. I sincerely hope businesses within the town to make the council's proposal by boycotting any advertising in Mr. Pae's newspaper. I wonder how long it would continue to deliver free of charge to every household if local businesses refused to advertise in his paper?

Mr. Pae has offered the council an alternate when he guarantees 100 percent subscription in St. Albert. Well he better change it to 99.9 percent, because I don't want the hand-out. I am not quite yet a charity case. I want responsible reporting of what my elected council is doing in order to be able to evaluate their performance and assist in making it my mind when the next election rolls around. I think we are getting that from the Gazette. Please keep up the good work.

D. J. Lachin, APR
Inmate.

Plain-Jamison Letters

September 17, 1975.

Mr. W. E. Jamison, Publisher
St. Albert Gazette,
31 Perron Street,
St. Albert, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Jamison:

At the next meeting of the Committee of the Whole the members of Council will complete their deliberations centered around considerations arising from a business proposition advanced by Sun Colorpress Ltd.

Your negative reactions to this proposal were carried in the CBC Tuesday, September 16, newscast; however, to my knowledge the Council as a whole has not been given the opportunity to hear your concerns nor have you availed yourself of the opportunity of discussing this matter with us in order to obtain some understanding of the facts surrounding the matter. This is most unfortunate.

THE PROPOSAL

Sun Colorpress Ltd. has offered to publish a local newspaper for St. Albert and distribute it free of charge to every residence in the Town. The condition attached to this offer is that the Town of St. Albert must direct all of the municipality's newspaper advertising to this firm for a one-year period. The rate at which the advertising will be charged is $1.82 per column inch which we understand is approximately $0.18 lower than the rates levied by the Gazette.

It is suggested that if you have objections to Council's consideration of this proposal that you should attend the Committee of the Whole meeting September 22, 1975 and state your case in front of the local government. As matters presently stand, we have a straightforward business proposition to consider which seemingly indicates that the taxpayers in this community can receive a greater benefit for each public dollar spent for advertising purposes than exists under the present arrangements. In my opinion, the Council would be extremely remiss in discharging its responsibilities if it did not consider or react to a proposition put forth by one of your business competitors which seemingly offers comparable services, more comprehensive coverage (in St. Albert) and lower rates than those provided by the St. Albert Gazette. Competition is the key to the smooth economic functioning of the private enterprise system. In my opinion, every government has a responsibility to ensure that competition exists in various economic markets and it is submitted that if cost savings can be obtained by a public corporation by encouraging competition in the local newspaper market in St. Albert that businessmen should welcome this type of development. Quasi-monopolies are not a tolerable feature in any healthy, vigorous and competitive market place.

In conclusion, it is suggested that you should avail yourself of the opportunity of discussing matters with the Committee members between 7:45 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. next Monday. Your comments, proposals and suggestions are welcomed. Please note that you should establish an opportune time by Thursday morning if you wish to meet with the Committee.

Re: R. H. M. Plain, Mayor - Letter of Sept. 17/75

Since I have no "CASE" to state in the matter of Council's decision to buy cheaper advertising in another paper, there is no reason for me to appear before council and I will not attend the Committee of the Whole meeting September 22, 1975.

My position has been made public that if a competitor comes in to St. Albert with a contract for one year for local government advertising, which that government estimates at $10,000.00 that is not my understanding of free competition in the market place. If council had wanted information about number of staff employed, circulation or other information they felt might be pertinent to their decision, they could have procured that information by coming to the publisher. No member of council did so, nor did council as a body asked for an appointment in my office.

POLITICS AMOK

EDMONTON JOURNAL
SEPTEMBER 18, 1975.

St. Albert town council's acceptance of an offer from Edmonton publisher T. W. Pue to provide a second weekly newspaper for that town presents some very troublesome aspects. It obviously occurs in the context of a dispute between council and the already established St. Albert Gazette over editorial policy.

Mr. Pue plans to distribute his weekly free of charge to all households in St. Albert and, as a condition of that, will be the sole carrier of town council advertising. That is, just weeks after calling in an unrepentant Gazette editor for a critical examination of his editorial policy, council is depriving the Gazette of all town advertising revenue.

It presumes a high degree of gullibility to interpret this as anything but economic coercion of a newspaper that refuses to bend to political pressure. Mr. Pue's offer was received only after the council-Gazette dispute erupted in public.

Does the St. Albert council expect that Mr. Pue's editorial policy will remain benign because he carries town advertising? Does St. Albert town council regard such a possibility as in the public good?

The argument that Mr. Pue's advertising space is cheaper than that of the Gazette is, in this case, clearly specious. A straight-faced cost-benefit defense of their action by council members constitutes a bald example of opportunism.

Mr. Pue has moved into a situation ripe for advantage, both to himself and (so they may think) to the politicians who make up St. Albert town council. But because of the damage done to the principle and practice of free public debate, the probable losers in all this are the people of St. Albert, whose interests those politicians purport to represent.

THE WATER RESOURCES ACT

STURGEON RIVER DIVERSION

Notice is hereby given that Alvin H. McKenzie has filed an application and plans under provisions of the Water Resources Act to construct the necessary works to divert a maximum of 222 acre-feet of water per annum from the Sturgeon River on the SE 14-55-24-4 for irrigation purposes.

Any person having a bona fide interest in the matter may file objections with the Controller of Water Resources, Department of The Environment, Milner Building, Edmonton on or before the 22 day of October, 1975.

Largest ship in the port of St. Albert is being built by Don Clark of 4 Grenfell Avenue. Mr. Clark has been working on his 46 foot ketch for four years and will soon be taking it out for a spin in the Pacific. "Sea Boots 2nd" has a 130 horsepower diesel motor. The mast can support 1,200 square feet of sail. The boat sleeps eight.

MPs questionnaire is food for thought

A general constituency questionnaire from Edmonton West MP Marcel Lambert this week gives constituents some interesting choices and food for thought.

Mr. Lambert hopes that constituents will answer the questionnaire early. It requires no stamp for return mailing.

Main points of the questionnaire seek opinions from the public on capital punishment, the registration of hand guns and automatic weapons, the satisfactory administration of justice, wage, profit, rent and price controls and the institution of a guaranteed income scheme.

The questionnaire also asks people whether they are in favour of prohibiting the ownership of land, or the long term leasing of crown land in Alberta by non-residents; what they feel about the size of the Federal Government and is there enough contact with the MP and the constituent.

A letter which comes with the questionnaire points out that constituency boundaries are under review, but that the proposals made by the Redistribution Commission last June are, according to Edmonton Members of Parliament, no better than those of two years ago.

There is also the news that there will be a new citizenship act this year. This will mean that you can get Canadian citizenship after three years residence rather than the present hefty swat of five years.

"This (change) is important because more and more federal and provincial statutes insist upon Canadian citizenship for voting, share ownership in banks, trust and insurance companies, newspapers and broadcasting stations.

British citizenship no longer qualifies for voting in a federal election and Canadian citizenship has to be assumed for this right.

Mr. Lambert also calls for continuing financial aid for political parties who are in dire need of funds to support their ongoing activities.

Under the Election Expenses Act there is now a credit towards income tax for gifts made in the approved manner to a federal political party.

A gift of, say, $100 gives an income tax credit of $75 and this goes as high as $500 per taxpayer. This can mean a substantial contribution to your political party at relatively little net cost.

Mr. Lambert reminds constituents that the Edmonton West constituency office is at 9509 - 156 Street (Wianko Clinic Building) phone 484-3666 (24 hours) with Mrs. Mary LeMessurier in charge.

Mr. Lambert asks the public to make contact if their problems concern unemployment insurance, old age or veteran's pension, family allowance, income or sales tax, customs, post office, immigration, parole service and other problems too numerous to mention.

Librarian resigns

At a meeting held August 19, the St. Albert Public Library Board regretfully accepted the resignation of librarian Don Mills, library assistant M. McCreath and trustee A. Ashburn.

The board is looking for a new librarian. Chairman Mrs. A. M. Dickson suggested the need for a small committee to interview and short list applicants.

St. Albert High News

Wednesday, September 10 was the date of this year's Grade 10 "welcoming" to SAHS. Some of the day's activities included a service of lunch to the seniors by the Frosh, an army-worm race (where the Frosh ran on all fours the length of our soccer field), a shoe-pile contest (when all 200 Frosh had to search at once for their shoes which were stacked in one huge pile), a "Do Your Own Thing" stage show put on by a few lucky Grade 10's, and the usual Kangaroo Court.

Grade 10 girls wore mini-skirts and men's T-shirts, with their hair in curlers and 10 different colours on their fingernails. The guys wore halter tops and their hair in ribboned pony-tails. All Frosh had to bring 39½ Mo-jos and cushions for their seniors, among other things.

All of these requirements were inspected during the day by our school principal Mr. Ross Johnson.

The night before, a Frosh Dance was held at the Club Mocombo. "Great Canadian River Race" played to a capacity crowd. It was a very successful dance.

Meanwhile, many school clubs and teams have begun with great participation, and we're all looking forward to our CHED sock-hop coming up this Friday.

News from SAM

The principal and staff at Sir Alexander Mackenzie School look forward to establishing a Local Advisory Board for the kindergarten. This board will consist of eight parents, two representing each class; the two kindergarten teachers; and, the principal of the school. Although the kindergarten has some volunteers for this committee, more are needed to represent parents of the children attending both the portable and the church during the morning sessions. Interested parents are requested to contact the school.

Parent volunteers are also needed to serve in other school activities. Persons who can spare a half day a week to help in the following tasks should also phone the school: assisting the kindergarten teachers, the library staff, the classroom teachers. The kind of assistance required for classroom teachers involves preparing stencils, listening to students read, assisting with displays, preparing charts, objective marking and typing for teachers.

Ceramics fires up again in town

The Ceramics Workshop group of the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild held their first meeting of the new season on September 17 at the Arts Centre. Following a brief business meeting, Sandra Veneldik presented an illustrated talk on the prehistoric pottery of Arizona. The many methods of design used by these potters, and the types of clay bodies found in the historic tribal areas were of great interest to the local-potters. Those attending the meeting were particularly interested in a display of pre-Columbian pottery from Costa Rica brought by a friend of Sandra's.

The ceramics group will be meeting regularly each month on the first Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. However, the next meeting will be October 8, due to the short time between meetings, and will feature demonstrations, and an opportunity for members to improve their techniques in glaze preparation, kiln firing and clay pugging.

St. Albert Lady Lions

The executive of the St. Albert Lady Lions held their monthly meeting Monday, September 22 at the home of Millie Boyd, 19 Latimer Place.

The regular meeting of the Lady Lions will be held on October 6 at the Club Mocombo, with guest speaker Constable Ole Rannaoja of the RCMP. His topic will be "Home Protection."

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Next to new sale great success

The next-to-new sale put on by volunteer workers of the Sturgeon General Hospital Auxiliary on Saturday turned out to be a most successful venture. A substantial profit was realized, all of which is to be donated to the Sturgeon General Hospital for equipment for a new case room.

The sale, regarded by many as a great inflation fighter, was well attended by residents of the community. As usual, there were customers at the Community Hall well ahead of opening time wishing to be among the first to look over the bargains. In some instances, low prices on many items prompted purchasers to pay a little more than the price indicated on the tag.

This was the third sale of its kind organized by the Auxiliary. This year's first vice-president, Laurel Thronson, and other auxiliary members put in many hours prior to the event which helped make it into the success it was. An expanded plant and garden table was featured and, as in previous years, there were tables containing clothing, toys, baking, books and bric-a-brac.

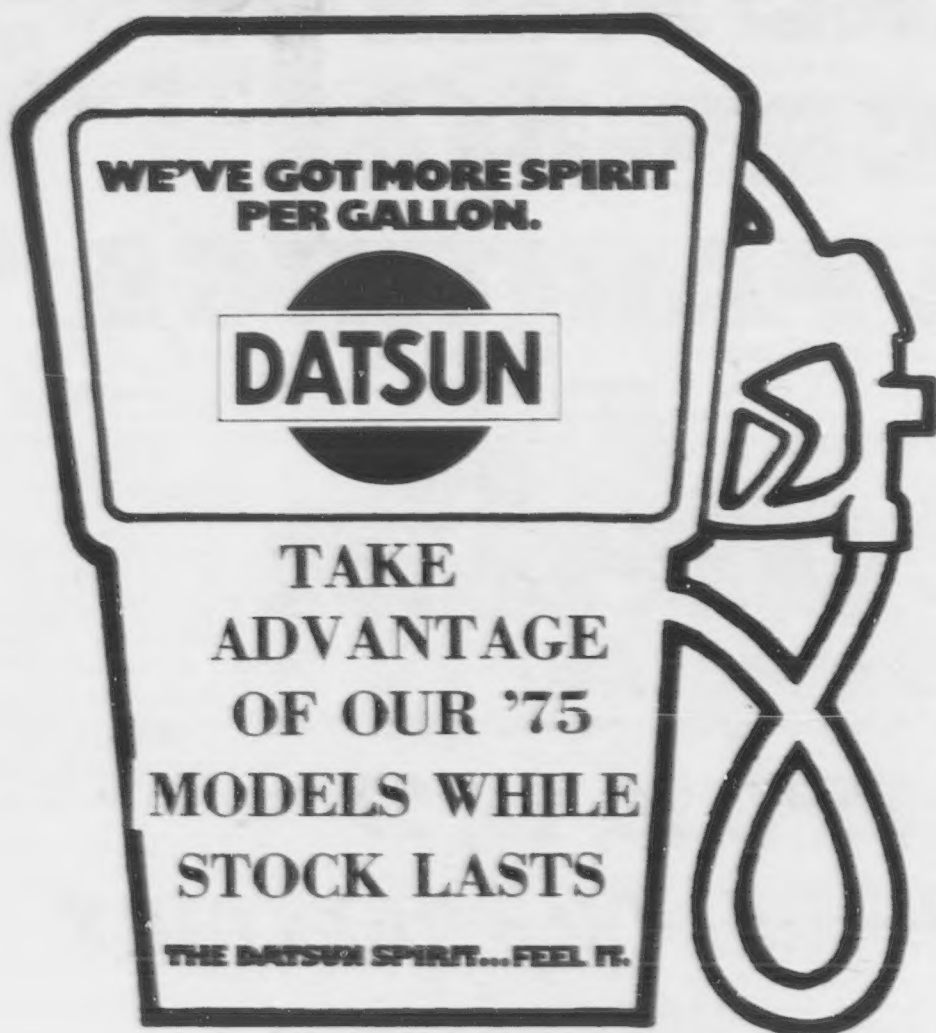

The Auxiliary wishes to thank all donors of articles for the sale and those residents who attended the sale as customers.

Winner of the hind quarter of beef whose ticket was drawn at the end of the sale was Mrs. Marlene Elliot of Braeside.

Community television gives Personal touch to programming

Have you ever wanted to get to a school board meeting, town council meeting, a special meeting called by the town, listen to that new politician or go to that peewee hockey game Johnny's playing in, but found you just couldn't make it out that night? Well, don't give up hope. St. Albert has its own crystal ball in the form of a community television channel. It is called Channel 11 and is on the cable system. It's all our own, set up just to serve you and I, citizens of St. Albert.

At the moment we are holding meetings to teach any facet of community television to every interested individual. In this way we can get people from all walks of life filming for themselves and the community.

Do you see the possibilities? We, of St. Albert will have the widest range of television programming. Yet every bit of it will relate in some way to the community.

Since cable television has become a community fact of life and provides an opportunity for each member of the community to express himself, some interested citizens have grouped together to take advantage of the limitless program possibilities of community television.

At this time our stated purpose is to suggest, develop, and produce cable television programs for public viewing in our community.

We also hope to involve as many community groups and individuals possible in these programs. We want many individuals and group representatives to become involved. You may do so by contacting the Capital Cable Television Studio in St. Albert. Further information can be obtained by phoning Frank Larkee at 459-3950, Eric Robinson at 459-3561 or Peter Wood at 459-6475.

There will be a seminar on studio operation Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the Capital Cable Vision Studio in the Sturgeon Shopping Plaza. Anyone can attend. There is a grade 6 boy who has been doing camera work for a year and is doing a marvellous job.

Although the station is privately owned, Capital Cable is obliged by law to provide one station for the use of residents. We should take advantage of this opportunity.

Evans renew vows on 25th wedding anniversary

MR. & MRS. ROBERT EVANS

Merle and Robert Evans of 4 Grandin Place, St. Albert, renewed their vows for their 25th wedding anniversary at St. Albert Catholic Church early this month.

The ceremony was performed by Father Roy, James McDonald and Ronald Crozier, son-in-laws, read the scriptures for the service. Debby McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans, accompanied her sisters Sherry Crozier and Wendy and Penny Evans as they sang, "True Love" and later as Sherry sang, "The Twelfth of Never."

The bride and groom entered the church together to a beautiful rendition of "Somewhere My Love" played by Debby, Penny on the clarinet and Arthur Wendt, brother of Mrs. Evans, on the saxophone.

Merle was lovely in a two-piece silver knit gown. She carried a cascade of red sweetheart roses on her prayer-book, which she carried 25 years ago on her original wedding day.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. C. G. (Della) Smith, the original matron of honour, repeated her part as attendant for Merle. She wore a long floral gown accented by a corsage of peach and white carnations.

Mr. Roy Evans, brother of Robert, was the best man. James McDonald and Ron Crozier ushered the guests.

Before the ceremony the bride and groom exchanged gifts of diamond rings.

Following the anniversary ceremony a reception and dance for approximately 80 people was held at the Club Mocambo. A toast to the couple was proposed by Mr. Martin King, friend of the family, who also did a superb job as master of ceremonies. Mr. Alvin Harter, friend and business associate, also proposed a toast to the happy couple. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Art Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wendt, all relatives from Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pokuin, Mrs. Ted Neilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Evans of Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans have resided in St. Albert for the past 13 years.

Auditions being held

Auditions for "Sleuth," a British "ho-dun-it," will be held at Waiatdale Theatre, 10322 - 83 Avenue.

On Sunday, Sept. 28 at 2 p.m. and Tuesday, Sept. 30 at 8 p.m., Director Jack Wilson will be looking for two men to cast in the lead roles. The men, one about 35 and the other between 40 and 50, will comprise the entire cast and create all the action. The story is a complicated one... involving a jewel theft, a murder that isn't a murder, a police investigation and a murder that is a murder.

Because the production is technically difficult, Mr. Wilson is inviting anyone interested in working 'behind the scenes' to attend the auditions. Extra backstage crew, set builders and decorators, and additional make-up people will be required.

The running dates for "Sleuth" are November 18-29 inclusive.

St. Albert Town Council Briefs

Following are some of the highlights from the regular meeting of St. Albert council Monday night. All councillors were present along with Mayor Dick Plain with Councillor Margaret Smith in the chair.

** ** *

COUNCIL MOVED that staff study a letter from an Edmonton resident Rita Atkinson requesting that the lake at Lacombe Park should be named Murchison Lake. This was following the tragic death of an Edmonton youth, 21 year old Brian Murchison at the site in July. Brian had been working at the site to put himself through art school. One of Brian's friends thought it would be nice if the lake could be named after him, a memorial to him and all young people.

** ** *

COUNCIL MOVED that Mayor Dick Plain give a paper at the October 8 public meeting in the Jubilee Auditorium which will foreshadow the U.N. "Habitat" conference in Vancouver next year.

The mayor will prepare the paper himself as it was felt that town staff had enough on their hands with routine business. Mayor Plain felt that St. Albert must indicate reasons for its type of existence as it was the only self-governing town of its kind in Alberta. He also feared that input at the October meeting might be limited to the larger cities of Canada.

Councillor Rod Thronson felt that this was all right for any member of council - to prepare a brief - if they felt strongly enough about it.

TOWN NEGOTIATORS have drafted their version of a development agreement to resolve as soon as possible any doubts on the Abbey

Glenn Shopping Centre development. A meeting is to be scheduled this week which should help finalize negotiations. Delays that have been happening are due to drafting of the wording of the agreement rather than the major issues, states the town monthly report.

** ** *

THE TOWN OF ST. ALBERT would like to increase its present volunteer fire fighting force from the present level of 14 to 25 men. Town administrator Robert Byron felt that it was recognized that 14 is below the desired level.

** ** *

A SCHEDULE OF PROGRAMS has been developed for the cultural component of the proposed recreation complex in St. Albert. The town feels that results of a study will show conclusively that the cultural component of 24.1 per cent at the facility is realistic.

** ** *

COUNCIL POINTED out that there's no word yet on the signing of the sewerage agreement with Morinville; also that St. Albert is awaiting a report from Stanley and Associates on alternatives for St. Albert's future water supply.

St. Albert at Witness Convention

Today, the earth's population faces the choice of life in a cleansed earth or destruction of the present system. Mankind's position regarding this choice depends on their response to the concept of the earth being ruled by God's Kingdom instead of man-made government.

This message, delivered to 666 people attending a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses held at Jasper Place Composite High School -

September 20 and 21, was a timely reminder of the work left to do.

Tom Moss of the St. Albert congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses said that there were nine congregations represented including 58 delegates from the St. Albert and Busby congregations.

to the bleak future facing adherents of political kingdoms and false religion.

Misinformed nations have opposed the preaching work in behalf of God's Kingdom but they have not prevailed. The Soviet Union tried to keep Jehovah's Witnesses out of their country. Howeaker at the convention and a travelling representative of the Watch Tower Society, reminded the conventioners that their position in relation to God's Kingdom vitally affects their future. Mr. Bevan contrasted the bright future for those enjoying the blessings of God's Kingdom ever, as a result of Russia's own policies during World War II and after, they unwittingly took thousands of Witnesses into their land and provided transportation for them to areas where they had never preached before. As a result, tens of thousands have taken their stand for God's Kingdom.

The conventioners were also reminded of the vast educational work that Jehovah's Witnesses have already carried out in the earth to prepare people for government by God's Kingdom. Mr. Bevan mentioned that some 35,000 congregational schools in over 200 lands accomplish this in spite of intense persecution in many areas.

The highlight of the convention was the public lecture entitled "How the Kingdom of God Affects You." Those in attendance heard Mr. Bevan explain from the Bible how further action in the near future by God's Kingdom would affect every person here on earth.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Walkingshaw of St. Albert are pleased to announce the engagement of their oldest daughter Shari Joan to Brian William son of Mr. and Mrs. John Paziuk of Edmonton.

If you are one of those who says there is nothing to do on a Friday night, we have some good news. The Evangelical Lutheran Church, across from the Town Hall, is sponsoring a series of films beginning Friday, Sept. 26. The first film "So Long Joey" will be shown at 7 p.m., and again at 9 p.m. There will be no admission charge but an offering will be received. It is hoped to cover the costs of film rental in this way. The film should be of interest to most age levels and a variety of topics are being chosen for subsequent film nights.

Coffee, hot chocolate and doughnuts will be sold in the basement throughout the evening for those who would like to visit with one another before or after seeing the film.

Kinsmen Minor Hockey

The Kinsmen Minor Hockey Association in checking over their equipment for the coming season note that a large amount of sweaters and goal equipment have not been turned in to date.

This is most disturbing to the hard working service group who are trying to outfit each boy with sweaters and socks as well as good goal equipment for each team.

Game sheets are now being checked over matching boys' names to sweater numbers issued last year, and those boys whose sweaters are not accounted for may not be able to play this year.

All coaches, boys or parents still having sweaters or goal equipment for any reason are asked to drop it off at the St. Albert Sportshop immediately.

Try outs at Morinville arena

The tryouts for the defending Peewee "A" St. Albert New Holland Combines will be at the Morinville Arena. All players are required to bring $1.00 per practice to help pay for the ice.

Mr. Al Laplante is returning as coach while the new manager and equipment manager will be named in Willowbrook Homes maintained possession of first place in the St. Albert Minor Football Association with a 30-12 win over Standard General Construction.

Standard General opened the scoring at 6:45 of the first quarter on a 27 yard run by Brady Ficko. Dennis Sabourin returned the compliment by tallying for Willowbrook at exactly the 6:45 mark of the second quarter. Kevin Plaisant put Standard General ahead for the second and

Willowbrook maintain first place stranglehold last time with a 25 yard run rounding out the scoring for Standard General.

Sabourin struck back immediately on the ensuing kick-off with a 73 yard kick-off return. In the third quarter James Frost recovered a blocked Standard General kick for third Willowbrook touchdown. Dennis Sabourin added his third of the day on a 77 yard run. Brent Biollo kicked two converts for Willowbrook Homes to round out their scoring.

We have a real barn burner shaping up for next Saturday for first place, as Willowbrook Homes will meet Jim Chisholm's Lacombe Park Red Rooster, who have tasted defeat but once, and that was at the hands of Willowbrook. Let's try to get as many people out as possible, remember, it's minor football week in Canada.

Tony Behiels puts game out of reach

The Grandin Bakery Peewees whipped Malmo 2-0 last weekend to win the city championship for the third straight year. There were 48 teams entered in the championships this year.

The win capped a tremendous season for the locals. They played in 30 games and only lost one.

Paul Kelly scored the team's first goal and Tony Behiels put the game out of reach 10 minutes before the end by adding a second score.

Coach Herman Kochan said the game was a close one. It was played with a lot of skill on both sides.

The St. Albert Hercules Peewee (B) found things a little easier. They beat Hazeldene 4 - 1. Coach Herman Nipp has led his team to an undefeated season thus far. They now advance to the Northern Alberta Championship.

BUSING TO CHAMPIONSHIP

The Grandin Bakery team (A division) will be travelling to Calgary this Sunday. They might charter a bus. Anyone interested in travelling to the game by bus should phone Herman Kochan at 459-8233 or Terry Ainsley at 459-6928.

Bantams clobber Thorsby

St. Albert Minor Football Association bantams played their best game of the year last Sunday, when they whipped the first place Thorsby team 47-12.

The win moves the St. Albert bantams into a second place tie with two other teams in the powerful eight team North Division. St. Albert opened the scoring early on a 50 yard run around end by Dave Catling. Catling who showed good speed throughout the entire game, just ran away from Thorsby defenders. Peter Tworek, who put in another strong game at quarterback, kicked the convert.

On their very next series, Francis Tworek took a pass from brother, Peter, and turned it into a spectacular 40 yard pass and run touchdown. St. Albert was quick to strike again as Marty Scheibelhofer intercepted a Thorsby pass deep in Thorsby's end; Brian McCann then scored the first of his two touchdowns from eight yards out. Francis Tworek scored a two point convert on a fake kick and the quarter ended with St. Albert ahead 21-0. In the second quarter the third member of the Tworek family got into the act, John Tworek intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to mid-field.

Two plays later, Brian McCann scored from the 30 yard line. Peter Tworek converted to end the first half with St. Albert in front by a 28-0 score.

In the second half, St. Albert's defense took over. Dave Catling intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown. Minutes later, Mark McLoughlin picked off a pass and ran in for a touchdown from 20 yards out. In the fourth quarter, Sean Sullivan recovered a fumble and set the stage for a tremendous individual effort by fullback Rod Kane.

Kane carried the ball for six consecutive plays covering 75 yards, finishing the drive with an 11 yard touchdown. Thorsby came back to score two touchdowns late in the game.

The St. Albert defense, which is quickly becoming known as the most powerful in the league, was led by strong performances from Harold Brubaker, Jeff Bennett, Guy Derieu, and Damir Dupin.

St. Albert plays two games this week; tonight in St. Albert at Lorne Akins field going at 6:30 p.m. against Boston Pizza; and Sunday, September 28 at 10 a.m. against Foley Electric at Kinsmen Field. Fans are encouraged to show up and support their team for both games.

Carma steamrolled

Jim Chisholm's Lacombe Park Red Rooster came up with their strongest performance to date, downing Carma Developers 40-13 last Saturday afternoon.

The Lacombe Park Red Rooster were led all day long by a tremendous display of running by Roy Kampen, who tallied three times on runs of five yards, 62 yards and 79 yards. The 60 yard run came on a perfectly executed reverse on the last play of the first half. The 79 yard play came on a half-back option from Robert Morrison who threw a perfect strike to Kampen, who ran for pay dirt. That play will probably stand as the longest play of the season.

Tim Heaton also carried for two majors on runs of 32 yards and 67 yards respectively. Tim is also shaping up to a force to be reckoned with, as is the whole Red Rooster team.

Keith Hewitt also carried for an 11 yard T.D. Robert Morrison rounded out the scoring for the Lacombe Park Red Rooster by kicking four two-point converts. Christopher was the bright spot for the Carm Crusaders as he struck for two majors on runs of nine and 28 yards respectively.

Tracy Fizzel kicked the remaining single point for Carma. The Carma Crusaders are developing with each time out, and will soon be making their presence felt in the league.

SAFEGWAY—WHERE PEOPLE

The road from Highway 2 to Calahoo was recently tarred and gravelled by the highways department. Except for a few spots, it is now almost like a super highway.

Seventeen year old Edmonton woman killed in Namao crash

$5,000 worth of damage was sustained to two vehicles and one person was killed after a head-on collision September 18 at the intersection of Highway 28 and secondary road 635 near Namao.

Killed in the accident which occurred at 12:15 a.m., was 17 year old Karen Mulligan of 10040 - 152

Street. She was killed when a southbound car driven by her husband Patrick, 19, was in collision with a car driven by Carl Burns, 65, of Vermilion, Alberta. Mr. Burns and his wife received no injuries in the crash.

Mr. Mulligan was afterwards admitted to the Royal Alexandra Hospital for treatment to lacerations and concussion.

A spokesman for the St. Albert RCMP said that Mr. Burns had been travelling east on Highway 635. He approached Highway 28 pulling out on to the road. It was then that both vehicles collided.

$2,000 worth of damage was sustained by the Burns vehicle and $3,000 to the Mulligan car.

Harvest good for the most part

The district agriculturist rates this year's crops as being good for the most part. However he also noted there has been a good deal of variability in the quality of harvests.

Wheat, oats, rapeseed, rye and barley all have done generally well. But there are some cases of these crops doing badly. He noted that there has been a greater degree of variability this year, than any other year.

High humidity has shortened combine hours to six or seven, rather than the usual 12 to 15. Consequently there has been a delay in getting the crops in. About 70 per cent of the wheat and rapeseed is harvested. Barley and rye are half done, and oats are 25 to 30 per cent finished.

He also said he has received some reports of slight frost damage.

Spotlight on Sturgeon Drinking themselves to death at Kipohtakaw?

By Jim McIntyre

Some of the remnants of the Cree Nation are drinking themselves to death at Kipohtakaw.

Does that sound like a line from anthropological treatise on the gradual destruction of the North American Indian? If it does you can be forgiven for thinking so. Kipohtakaw is the Cree word which means "our place in the big forest."

The big forest once covered the entire MD of Sturgeon and beyond, game was plentiful and there was little or no disease.

Now, like the Cree there are only remnants of the great forest left and the nation has somehow shrunk in size on to what is now called the Alexander Indian Reserve Number 134. The reserve is just about 12 miles west of Morinville.

Just before you get to the reserve, the road seems to symbolically turn to gravel, but the landscape suddenly changes to rolling parkland and wide vistas. Then you hit the village, the "Home of the Braves" and park your car at either the school or the office of the band council.

There are some 550 souls left in the village and what is happening there would probably make Father Albert Lacombe turn over in his grave.

The Indians who live there are no different to many of their white brothers. They see no solace from the increasing pressures of modern living, expressed in things like inflation, high land prices, the threat of atomic war or just plain apathy and boredom, except in the "bottle." The reserve gets RCMP police protection on request, but Allan Paul, on the band council in the village and also the co-ordinator of Kipohtakaw counselling services there says that many of the tragic happenings on the reserve like child abuse, assaults and even death through drinking, go unreported.

Only two months ago a woman on the reserve literally drank herself to death, says Allan.

The common complaint seems to be that there is little to do in the way of recreation, although recently a basketball and volleyball team got going in the community - part of the Federally supported program to give the reserve residents a sense of purpose and enjoyment.

More than that there is also a genuine attempt to inject into the anti-booze program an appreciation for the long lost old ways of the Indian people, with some emphasis on the spiritual aspects of their lives.

Sadly, the people have been so changed by their experience of progress and the new ways, that they find it difficult to absorb the pow-wows, the hand games, the rediscovery of their ancient ways each Tuesday and Thursday night. To educate them back in time is a very difficult process points out Mr. Paul and the surmounting of problems can only be done on a day to day basis.

The Government is also facing the backlash from having taken on the burden of responsibility from a people who survived thousands of years feeding on wild game and berries. How can you give back these people that kind of independence when for many years they have been accustomed to living on welfare?

One way is through education, but Mr. Paul says that unless the disease of alcoholism is locked then social problems are going to get worse rather than better. You cannot learn much from a teacher or a text book if your brain is half dead from alcohol. That is why the program is trying to educate the residents of the reserve away from alcohol. It has only been in existence for two months and so it is still very early to pass judgement on progress. But some progress does seem to have been made, for some of the people are forsaking the bottle to come in and hear how they might defeat the booze demon which has hold on them.

Outsiders from the reserve are also welcome to learn how to combat alcoholism, to overcome their shyness about admitting their weakness.

But it is an uphill battle all the way. A report mentions Morinville, Busby and Onaway as places where you can fill your tank and if that fails and you run out of booze, then there's always a "white" bootlegger who is within easy distance of the reserve.

A report on the anti-alcoholism program which has been given the blessing of the band council points out that the weekends and the hot summer season are the worst for the alcoholics. Then is the time when 50 per cent of the people will drink to excess with the attendant problems too much in evidence, child abuse and assault.

And another very telling statistic is that over the period 1967 - 75, there has been a marked increase in drinking on the reserve.

The report also warns that lack of education is cause for fear that there will not be positive development in the future. Alcoholism on the reserve causes a school drop out rate where only 14 out of 70 children are still at school between the ages of 17 and 21.

This all sounds like a real challenge to Mr. Paul, the two counsellors and part-time secretary who take the fight to the demon called Alcohol.

To try and right the poor schooling situation, the band council have approved a youth club for younger residents. There they will be under some form of guidance, but even here they express a sense of loss of direction, an inability to express what it is they want.

There is a bright side to all this. If the program eventually wins through, there will be a revival of cultural and spiritual traditions which have been lost in the mists of time, there'll be greater pride in the reserve and less violence.

The people on the reserve are getting help from the RCMP if and when they are unfortunate enough to land up in court on criminal charges related to alcohol. And there are other resource people both in hospitals and the social services who are leading the fight against this spiritual and cultural suicide.

But there is still strong pressure to grab the bottle when you feel at a low ebb on the reserve.

It's been a despairing scene at Kipohtakaw since 1967. Booze was seen as the only opiate. But it destroyed the emotional and physical well being of those who were once a great nation.

When will the numerous deaths, the blindings and the maimings cease at the Alexander Reserve?

Perhaps only when the same tragic pattern comes to an end in our own society.

Firemen sprang into action to try and save the home of two families last Thursday in Morinville. They worked for five hours to douse the fire. Fire Chief Don Found is pessimistic about whether the home will ever be lived in again.

AGRICULTURAL REVIEW

Unifarm has agreed to work with Alberta Transportation in conducting a province-wide evaluation of Alberta's transportation needs. The project will be directed toward assisting communities interested in preparing submissions to the Hall Commission on Grain Handling and Transportation and in determining public assessment of present and future transportation needs of the province.

Members of Agricultural Development Committees and district agriculturists at country points are involved in the program that will also seek participation by various community organizations. Unifarm field staff will interview community leaders in approximately 72 communities and establish local committees in more than 40 of them to organize public examination of transportation facilities. The program is planned to involve the total community to ensure representative views of all sides on the implications of changes in transportation patterns.

In view of a market trend toward strengthening world grain prices, Unifarm President Dobson Lea has asked the federal government to increase the initial price paid to farmers for Wheat Board grain purchases. Since the board has already purchased grain at the new price schedule, he also asked for a supplementary payment for grain purchased in the current crop year prior to the effective date of the proposed increase.

He cited heavy investment by farmers in seed, fuel, fertilizer and other inputs as reason for financial return as soon as possible.

Attempts by the federal government to stabilize the beef industry must include the cow-calf sector if further deterioration is to be avoided, according to Unifarm President Dobson Lea.

In a letter to Agriculture

Minister Eugene Whelan, Mr. Lea warned that omission of cow-calf operators from stabilization programs would be harmful to the total industry.

Failure to stabilize the base of the industry, he said, would result in deterioration that would make it impossible for various sectors of the industry to make the long-term plans required for the long beef production cycle.

Crozier-Robblee wedding

By Norma Crozier

Trinity United Church was the scene for the summer afternoon wedding on August 30, 1975 uniting in marriage Miss Carol Jean Crozier and Mr. Albert Norman Robblee. Baskets filled with tall gladiolus banked the church and two candleabras with white mums and ivy decorated the altar. Reverend McNeil performed the double ring ceremony.

Carol is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crozier of Namao and Norman is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Robblee of Edmonton.

During the ceremony Mrs. Diane Nelsen sang "If" and Ron Nelsen sang "The Lord's Prayer." Together they sang the beautiful duet "One Hand One Heart."

Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in her original gown fashioned by Mrs. Ruby Lowe, of polyester satin with imported lace bodice and trim. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, German strata and ivy.

Attending the bride were friends Mrs. Margie Weisbeck, Mrs. Margaret Samis, Miss Kathy Latimer and her cousin Mrs. Arla Sinclair. The bridesmaid wore identical shirtwaist gowns in pink polysatin. Their bouquets were white mums and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's attendants were his best man Mr. David Payne, ushers Mr. Ron Brimacombe, Al Schilling and his brother, Mr. Bob Robblee.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a burnt orange sleeveless gown with jacket, complemented by her corsage of talisman roses. The groom's mother chose a pale turquoise gown with V-neck and long sleeves with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Following the wedding a reception and dance were held at the Namao School Auditorium. Mr. Hugh Crozier, uncle of the bride was master of ceremonies and also performed the toast to the bride. Ron and Diane Nelsen sang a selection of songs accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Crozier, aunt of the bride.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents Mrs. Lorne Akins of St. Albert and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auten of Edmonton.

Candid pictures were taken by Mr. Ken Crozier, brother of the bride and the guest book was in charge of Miss Margaret Robblee, sister of the groom and Miss Karen Tessier.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robblee are making their home in Edmonton.

R.W.(BILL) Akerman passes

By Norma Crozier

Mr. R. W. (Bill) Akerman passed away September 7, 1975 at the age of 87 years. He was born in Bronham, Wiltshire, England, August 21, 1888. After completing his education, he worked with his father in the family business, a bake shop and store. In 1912 he was married to Carrie Paget and in 1913 he and his bride followed friends to Canada to take up farming. Settling on a homestead southeast of Coronation, which was later known as Hemaruka, they farmed until 1933 when they moved to a farm at St. Albert. After four years they decided to take up farming in the Namao district where they lived until retiring in 1952 to a home in Edmonton.

A keen sportsman, in his retirement Bill Akerman enjoyed lawn and alley bowling and curling.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife Carrie, one daughter, Mrs. Daphne Kerr of Calahoo, Alberta; two sons, Colin of Edmonton and Gordon of Namao; one grand-daughter Barbara, and one grandson William, both of Namao; one sister Mrs. Gladys Golding of Toronto, and one brother, Bert in England.

Funeral services were held on September 10 from Howard and McBride Chapel with Rev. H. Black officiating. Interment was in the Namao Cemetery.

$3000 grant to central Sturgeon Agr. Soc.

The Morinville Frontier Daze Association presented the Central Sturgeon Agricultural Society with a $3,000., no strings attached grant, on Wednesday, September 17. Morinville Frontier Daze Association Committee, in keeping with their established practice of plowing all monies gained in connection with Frontier Daze activities, back into the community, felt that as the arena and new multi-purpose building represented the major recreation facilities in town, the money could be best used by the people running these facilities. (Central Agr. Society Association).

This grant follows a similar gift last year of $3,600. Further donations by the Frontier Daze Association will be announced next week.

House seriously damaged by fire

The house looked like a smouldering cauldron - smoke issuing through tiny cracks in an upstairs window. Five hours later, the Morinville Fire Department finally had the blaze out. The structure was still standing, but in the opinion of Fire Chief Don Found "probably not usable." The house may have to be scrapped.

The fire was caused by an electrical short that exploded in the downstairs kitchen and from there went upstairs.

The downstairs fire was quickly extinguished, but the upstairs fire was caught between the two roofs of a double roof. That and the fact that the upstairs portion of the house was very hot made it difficult for the firemen to get at the upstairs blaze. Thus the long hours spent fighting it.

The house, located between the Macleod Store and a shoe repair shop on Grandin Avenue, was evacuated shortly after the fire was reported. Residents came quickly to the aid of the two families who lived in the house and in about half an hour they had moved most of Mr. Houle's and Mrs. Rousseau's furniture from the house to the street.

One individual complimented the co-operation of the neighbours, "I've never seen so many people out here in my life," he said. And indeed many went right into a warm shower of water that was leaking through the roof to salvage stoves, fridges, couches and other items. The water came from the fire hoses.

By 11:40, everyone was ordered out of the house. A few minutes later, the men on the ladder were told to get down. It was dangerous to risk being too close to the building. Police had partially blocked off Grandin Avenue.

By 12 a.m., part of the roof looked like it had been punctured by a can opener. Furniture, that had been moved out of the house, was moved farther back away from the fire.

But by 12:10, the fire was quelled enough to put the ladder back up. However it wasn't until 4 o'clock that firemen could call it a day.

Smoke was pretty thick in the upper portion of the house where the blaze smouldered.

Trauma of northern Ireland at movies

If you want to get a first hand impression (almost) of what the troubles of Ireland mean in human terms, go and see the movie Hennessy, presently playing at a theatre in Edmonton.

Rod Steiger plays a quiet mannered southern Irishman who is finally driven to desperation by the violence in the North and takes unusual action to remedy his emotional hurt. He spearheads an international cast of stars in the movie.

There is excellent footage of film which shows the Queen opening a recent British Parliament. (With that clue thrown in, it should give you some idea of what to expect in plot complications).

See the movie for yourself. It pulls no punches, but tells it as it really is.
